

11 GENERAL ORDERS OF A SENTRY

The 11 General Orders of a Sentry are essential directives used by the Navy and Marine Corps. They cover every conceivable situation a sentry might encounter while on duty, focusing on personal safety and the protection of others. All Sailors and Marines are taught to memorize them verbatim.

1. To take charge of this post and all government property in view.
2. To walk my post in a military manner, keeping always on alert, and observing everything that takes place within sight or hearing.
3. To report all violations of orders I am instructed to enforce.
4. To repeat all calls from posts more distant from the guard house than my own.
5. To quit my post only when properly relieved.
6. To receive, obey, and pass on to the sentry who relieves me, all orders from the Commanding Officer, Command Duty Officer, Officer of the Deck, and Officers and Petty Officers of the watch only.
7. To talk to no one except in the line of duty.
8. To give (sound) the alarm in case of fire or disorder.
9. To call the Officer of the Deck in any case not covered by instructions.
10. To salute all Officers and all colors and standards not cased.
11. To be especially watchful at night and during the time for challenging, to challenge all persons on or near my post, and to allow no one to pass without proper authority.
